Sub: BASIC EDUCATION - Senior Basic school at Perdala - South Kanara Dt.Board - collection of school fees in Hr.grades - regarding - orders sought.
Ref: Govt.Memo.No.2685-C-53-3 Edn., dated 27-12-53.

The Government in their memo. cited above, have been pleased to permit the opening of Hr.grades in the Board basic Ele.school, Perdala. In response thereto the VI grade was opened by the Hon'ble Minister for Education on 21-10-53.

2. Now a doubt has arisen as to whether school fees should be collected in Hr.grades of the Basic schools as in the case of other Hr.Ele.schools. It is also learnt that no fees are levied in Senior Basic schools under the management of the Government.

3. I request that the Government may be pleased to pass orders as to whether school fees should be collected from the pupils of Grades VI, VII and VIII of Senior Basic schools as in the case of Hr.Ele.stds.of Hr.Ele.schools.

Sir,

Sub:- Basic Education--Senior Basic School at Perdala--South Kanara District Board--Collection of School f in Higher grades.

Ref:- Government Endorsement No.3132-EIII/54-1 dated 26.4.1954.

Schools under Public management can levy fees with reference to rule 73 (1) of the Madras Educational Rule. In the District Board Elementary School, Perdala, originally fees were not levied and the school did not have higher Elementary standards in which fees were levied. Grade VI was opened only during the year 1953-54 and therefore no fees need be levied for the Senior Basic grades in the school.

Yours faithfully,
